Do You Talk About Others?

3 "Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother's eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye? 4 How can you say to your brother, 'Let me take the speck out of your eye,' when all the time there is a plank in your own eye? 5 You hypocrite, first take the plank out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye. (Matthew 7:3–5)

In speaking of a person's faults, pray don't forget your own;

Remember, those with houses of glass, should seldom throw a stone.

If we had nothing else to do but talk of those who sin,

'Tis better that talk started at home, and from that point begin.

We have not right to judge a man until he's fairly tried;

Should we not like his company, we know this world is wide.

Some have their faults—who has none? The old as well as the young.

Perhaps we may, if you think about it, have fifty to their none.

I'll tell you of a better plan, and find it works quite well,

To try my own defects to cure before of others tell.

And though I sometimes hope to be no worse than some I know,

My own shortcomings bid me let the faults of others go.

Then let us all when we commence to slander friend or foe,

Think of the harm one word may do to those who little know.

Remember curses, sometimes like, our chickens "roost at home."

Don't speak of others faults until we have none of our own.
